

RETURN ASSISTANCE

Solid Road is a Dutch foundation that helps asylum seekers, refugees and migrants to return voluntarily to their country of origin.

In the Netherlands, Solid Road supports returnees with:

- Assistance in obtaining travel documents
- Drawing up a reintegration plan
- Offering free vocational training (for training offers see www.solidroad.nl)
- Escort by a Solid Road employee at Schiphol, on the day of departure

Solid Road supports returnees in the country of origin through its partner organizations.

This support consists of:

- Assistance in finding a place to live
- Assistance finding appropriate schools
- Assistance in finding work or in starting up a business
- Maintaining contact with the returnee for individual guidance, and monitoring to ensure a successful future after return

Financial Support

A return budget is available for each returnee to build a new future in the country of origin. The value of each return budget is determined by the country of origin and the age of the returnee.

The return budget is partially cash and part in kind (goods or services). Disbursement of return budgets are managed by Solid Road and the partner organizations. To inquire about the value of your return budget, please contact us.
